

Thank you for visiting my website.

I am committed to maintaining the trust and confidence of my visitors to my website. I am not in the business of selling, renting or trading email lists with any other individual, company or business for marketing purposes.

This privacy policy provides information on when and why I collect your personal information, how I use it, the limited conditions under which I may disclose it to others, and how I keep it secure.

I do not use cookies on my website, however, cookies are used on my blog. My blog is linked with this website, but is hosted by Blogger. Blogger is a web publishing tool from Google and the privacy policy for the cookies used on my blog can be found here.

I use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. I do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. I do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting my website.

I also use Statcounter, an anonymous web tracking service. Statcounter is not able to identify an individual person. The sole focus of the service is on what visitors to my website do, not who that visitor is.

I use a third-party provider, MailChimp, to deliver my newsletter. I gather statistics around email opening and clicks using industry standard technologies to help me monitor and improve my e-newsletter. For more information, please see MailChimp's privacy notice. You can unsubscribe to general mailings at any time of the day or night by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of any of my emails or by emailing me.

I do not share any of your data with anyone – and that includes other artists, organisations or companies.

If you want to view, amend or delete the personal data you provided when you signed up to my newsletter, please email me.

I will update this Privacy Notice as necessary according to current EU and UK law.
